                            Jere Kovach

A round table discussion ensued.

Mike Blackman – Mike met with Elaina to go through the details of the Business Ready Grant, which is due Sep. 1st. Mike has decided to make a separate book which contains the supporting data which will be referred to in the actual application. Mike found out that the loan component for the Business Ready Grant is up to $1.5 million. Mike will contact LVE and Silverstar and ask about the infrastructure of the building. Mike will try to have the rough draft of the grant application done by next week. Mike will also draft a letter to the fire marshal, then forward it on to Greg Wilkes who will actually send it to him. Mike is still trying to contact Adam Mendonca.

Ed Koch – Has completed the resolution of support for the Town Council and Board of Directors to vote on. He will send a copy over to Mike. The Town Council is going to postpone their vote on the resolution until after the Board of Directors votes on Saturday August, 20th.

Ken Crittenden – Ken is still waiting for a letter from Sheryl Manning stating the Real Estate value of the barn and the land.

Korry Wheeler – Korry is to try to get a hold of Stevens Henager and University of Wyoming. He also finished the chronological list of public meetings and minutes for the grant application.

Ken Crittenden – Ken contacted the Lincoln County Assessor and found that they have assessed the value of the barn and the associated land at $339,322. Ken is to get the listing value from Bob and Sheryl Manning

Korry Wheeler – Korry is to get in touch with Dr. Carla Leach from WWCC and contact University of Wyoming to see if they are interested in utilizing space for classes.

The meeting adjourned at 10:45 am.
